

Erasmus+ grants : International Credit Mobility (MIC) 2021

I Prerequisites and eligibility criteria for study mobilities

AT THE TIME OF APPLYING

In order to apply for the International Credit Mobility Programme, you must :

- be a registered student at the Cnam
- have validated the mobility project with your academic supervisor
- be the holder of a valid visa/residence permit if you are a foreign student from outside the European Union. Your visa/residence permit must be valid for the duration of your mobility period

AT THE TIME OF MOBILITY

In order to participate in the International Credit Mobility Programme, you must:

- receive acceptance from the host university on the International Credit Mobility Programme
- be a registered student at the Cnam. Your administrative registration at the Cnam is compulsory in order to be exempted from the registration fees charged by the host institution
- have passed your exams and obtained the approval of your study period in Europe from the Cnam
- have a valid visa/residence permit in France and in the host country if you are a foreign student from outside of the EU

Please note: If your French visa/residence permit expires while you are abroad studying on the programme, you may be refused entry to France upon your return.

II Preparing your application

DESTINATION AND PARTNER INSTITUTION

Consult the websites of the partner university: you will find valuable information, including the courses available, the language(s) of instruction and certain specific requirements (mandatory language tests etc.)

V Criteria

Not all destinations are open to everyone. Please verify which fields of study are possible in each partner country.

The joint steering committee (CMP) includes the pedagogical and administrative heads of the two institutions. This committee selects the successful applicants in consultation with the professors in charge of the programmes, taking into account the following criteria:

- Students' academic results
- Language skills
- Students' educational project
- Previous participation in the Erasmus+ programme

VI After the selection process If you have been selected for the ICM programme, here are the steps to follow:

1. THE DDEI SENDS YOU THE SELECTION NOTIFICATION

You must fill in the mobility contract and send the completed version to the DDEI by e-mail, it is imperative that the professor in charge of your program also signs this contract

Any mobility contract submitted without the signature of the professor in charge of your programme will be refused and will lead to the cancellation of the student's application
